With summer arriving, now is the best time to help recruit volunteer Big Brothers and Big Sisters! We want you to get involved! Can you help us by reaching out to people in your life who you know would be a great "Big"? In this issue of Match Times, you will find an insert poster that we encourage you to hang up—either at work or another public place.

Big Brothers Big Sisters is always looking for all types of volunteers, but right now there is a large need for men. Too many boys who need a Big Brother don't have one. These boys are ready and eager for someone to play catch with, a fellow computer-game lover, or a buddy to haggle over the last slice of pizza and then share a movie

Please call 498-BBBS or visit www.bbbsnew.org to sign up to become a Big.

"Best Banquet Ever"

BBBS Honors Volunteers and Contributors

"Taking Magical Steps" was the theme of the 35th Annual Appreciation Dinner held May 1 at the Holiday Inn – City Centre. For the 200 guests who attended this year's event, it was a night of magic. The evening began with an inspiring performance by the "Keeping It Real Step Team" and ended with the magic and illusions of Magician Bob Nowak. As the evening ended, several people were heard to comment "This was the best banquet ever!"

The dinner is held annually to thank and honor our volunteers and contributors who make Big Brothers Big Sisters programming so successful. Awards were presented to the following people: Chris Ostrand was presented with the "Big Brother of the Year" Award; Jenn Loney received the "Star Little of the Year" in recognition of her outstanding accomplishments; and Board President, Theresa Ostert received the "Marie Krohn Award" for outstanding volunteer service and leadership as a Board member.

Bigs recognized for their years of service include: Nancy Jo Harring – 20 years; Heidi Dockham, Dan Drella, Teri Kranz-Drella, Kristin Kinstetter Elliott, Gail & Mark Peterson and Marti Spittell Ziegelbauer – 5 years.

Cheri Brice-Lasee was honored for her 20 plus years as a board member. Cheri's leadership with the Bowl For Kids' Sake and Golf For Kids' Sake events was very instrumental to their success during the time she served on the board of directors.

Receiving the "President's Award" as the most significant contributor to Big Brothers Big Sisters in 2006 was Oneida Nation of Wisconsin. Green Bay Packaging, Humana, M&I Bank and Virchow, Krause & Co. received the "President's Gold Circle Award" for their contributions in excess of $10,000 to the agency. Receiving the "President's Silver Circle Award" for their support in excess of $5,000 were Associated Bank, Chase, Humana, Kubiak Swimming Pools, Noodles & Company, Schneider National and Schreiber Foods.

The following people were recognized for Outstanding Site-based Partnerships: Jamie Kallies – Pioneer Elementary School, Linda Willis – Danz Elementary School, Sim Boyle and Leanne Snell – Valley View Elementary School, Marty Froelich and Melanie Buechler – Lineville Intermediate School and Paula Geishirt – Eisenhower Elementary. Sarah Novitski and Danielle Jandrain from the Boys & Girls Club received the Outstanding Community Partner Award.

We would like to acknowledge the Bigs and their Littles (and parents) who nominated them for the "Big of the Year" award. Nominating the Bigs for this award was a very special way to say thank you.

June

Big's Name: LaReina Tipping Little's Name: Alona
LaReina is the Site-based Coordinator with Big Brothers Big Sisters.

Tell us about the photo you included.

This photo is a picture from my wedding in April. I asked Alona to be a Junior Bridesmaid. She gladly accepted. I was honored and it truly made my day more special.

What are your favorite activities to do with each other?

Now that the weather is nice we like to spend a lot of time outside. Some of our favorite things to do are going biking, playing tennis and rollerblading. Honestly, we spend a lot of time just hanging out and talking.

Tell us about a fun time that you have had together.

It seems that we always have fun together. One of our favorite things we did last September was go to Door County. We went up to Cave Point and hung out by the water, park and cliffs. It was a great road trip! This was the first time Alona saw Lake Michigan.

Any thing else you would like to say or include?

We have a lot of fun together! I can't believe it has been a year since we've been matched. It sure is true about the saying: "Time flies when you are having fun".

July

Big's Name: James Jackson Little's Name: James

What are your favorite activities to do with each other?

Playing board games, playing computer games, Frisbee golf, fishing. James also has enjoyed attending numerous sporting events—Packer's football games, Gambler's hockey, Phoenix basketball, Timber Rattler's baseball and Blizzard arena football.

Tell us about a fun time that you have had together.

We went to a lake house for a day with extended family. James enjoyed having several boys his age to play with. They fished, went on a paddleboat, rode jet ski's (with an adult), and rode on a towed inflatable "hot dog".

Any thing else you would like to say or include?

James has been a good Big Brother. We enjoy getting together.

Safety Tips

Safe Cyberspace Surfing

Learn about llamas, read up on your favorite skateboard star, or study a stegosaurus. You can do all these things online and then email or text message your best friend about it. But when you're moving through cyberspace, you need to stay safe.

It comes down to just a few simple guidelines: 1.) Don't communicate with strangers online and never agree to meet in person. 2.) Tell a parent or an adult if a stranger contacts you in a chat room or messengers/texts you. 3.) Don't enter contests, join clubs, or share your personal information for any reason, unless your mom or dad says it's OK. Personal information includes your name, address, age, phone number, birthday, email address, where you go to school, and other facts about you.

Let your parents know if a stranger emails you, sends a text message, or starts a conversation with you in a chat room. The email could be from a person or a company trying to sell you something. A grown-up should decide what's best to do, which may include changing your email address or telling the police.

Anybody who uses the Internet has been asked to sign in, log in, or create a personal profile. Kids need to check with a parent or grown-up before doing so. Why? This information could be used for reasons you wouldn't like, like getting a lot of junk email.

Since you were a little kid, your mom or dad has probably told you not to talk to strangers. The same goes for the online world. It's easy to meet a stranger on the Internet. You might visit a chat room or get an email or text message from someone you don't know.

It can be fun to make new friends, but do not communicate with strangers you meet online. Don't talk to them, agree to phone them, or email them photos of yourself. To a kid, this can seem kind of silly. Why not make a friend with someone who likes skateboarding just as much as you do? The writer might seem really nice and tell you how you sound really smart and cute.

Unfortunately, kids have been tricked online by people who pretend to be something that they're not. Someone might lie and say they're in sixth grade, too, when they're really all grown up and they don't even know how to skateboard. Some kids have found themselves in a dangerous situation when they agreed to meet the mysterious online "friend" in person.

Another way to keep your privacy is to choose a screen name or email account name that isn't your real name. For instance, instead of "Jack Smith," why not choose "Sk8boardKing21"? Only your friends and family will know your code name.
